Paul Richardson is a highly successful immigration barrister.

Paul has 27 years of experience and is a seasoned advocate and expert tactician. He has a high success rate and a reputation for winning difficult cases.

Paul's work includes cases in the First-tier Tribunal, the Upper Tribunal, the Administrative Court and the Court of Appeal.

As well as advocacy, Paul prides himself on the quality of his written work, which includes advices, covering letters, written submissions and specialist immigration pleadings and grounds. He is usually able to complete such work to a high standard within a very strict timeframe.

In addition to a busy immigration practice, Paul also holds two judicial appointments as a Tribunal Judge in both the War Pensions and Armed Forces Compensation Chamber and the Social Entitlement Chamber.

Paul is a qualified Direct Access barrister and is therefore able to receive instructions directly from the public.
