Krystelle has a mixed practice, encompassing immigration, refugee and asylum and public law. She also has particular expertise in disclosure matters, specifically in large serious fraud cases. She accepts cases on a private, legal aid or Public Access basis.

Immigration and Public Law

Krystelle is experienced in the areas of immigration, refugee and asylum, and public law. Her practice encompasses the full spectrum of appeal and judicial review work. She prides herself on being thorough, approachable and providing a sensitive touch in difficult matters.

Krystelle regularly appears before the First Tier and Upper Tier Immigration Tribunals in respect of all immigration matters such as asylum, EEA, deportation and cases involving breach of Article 22 confidentiality. She is experienced in dealing with victims of torture or human trafficking. Krystelle has notable experience of Sri Lankan asylum claims and clients who have experienced PTSD. Krystelle has a strong track record in judicial review matters and had previously successfully obtained stays on removal and successful reconsideration of matters at the Pre Action stage.

Notable cases

[ME \(Sri Lanka\) v Secretary of State for the Home Department \[2018\] EWCA Civ 1486](#)

Junior Counsel successfully challenging the refusal to grant asylum to a previous victim of torture.
