GOLDSMITH
CHAMBERS

Samantha practises in White Collar Crime, Extradition and Family law.

Samantha combines her expertise in criminal law with an interest in human rights. She is a white-collar crime specialist and works with both prosecuting agencies and companies.

Samantha spent over two years advising a French multinational on its anti-bribery and anti-corruption polices including the review of contractual arrangements and payment processes within the business units to ensure that they were compliant with the Bribery Act 2010.

Samantha has advised companies based in and/or working in Africa upon various aspects of English law. She regularly advises companies in relation to commercial disputes as well as their anti-corruption and human rights obligations.

Samantha also continues to work with NGO's upon anti-corruption and Human Rights initiatives across Africa and the United Kingdom. She speaks French and Spanish fluently and often travels and works abroad, as required by the relevant project.
